

INDIANA POLICY

Review

Winter 2025

Getting Serious About
Reducing Wildfire Damage

Barry Keating

President Franklin D. Roosevelt signing the Social Security Act, Aug. 14, 1935

Social Security: It's Not Too Late A Pension Buyout Is the Solution

The Social Security pension program is set to deplete its reserves in eight years as Gen X retires. If no major changes are made the program will thenceforth be able to pay only 79 percent of scheduled benefits.